Vote 2008

As many of you may know, John Dougherty, Business Manager for IBEW Local Union 98 in Philadelphia, is currently running for the office of Pennsylvania Senator from the 1st District. This office is presently held by long time Senator Vince Fumo, who decided not to seek reelection. Not only will the city of Philadelphia benefit by electing John Dougherty but all of the labor unions in the area will have a true voice of labor in Harrisburg. Union membership grew by 100,000 members in Pennsylvania during 2007 and by electing candidates like John Dougherty, we can help keep the labor movement going forward in the future.

There will be a special collection for the John Dougherty campaign at the LU 614 General Meeting on Wednesday April 9, 2008. Your donation will be greatly appreciated. If you are not able to make the meeting but would still like to donate, see your steward or ABM.
